Hans W. Baade, Peter E. Herzog : Schlesinger, Baade, Herzog and Wise's Comparative Law, 6th (University Casebook Series) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Schlesinger, Baade, Herzog and Wise's Comparative Law, 6th (University Casebook Series):

This casebook for the study of comparative law discusses legal changes resulting from the end of the Soviet Empire and of socialist law. It traces the continuing impact that both European Community law and regional human rights law have had on the internal legal systems of European countries, concomitant tensions toward a revised "common law of Europe," and toward a closer convergence between civil and common law systems. It discusses renewed attention to the methodological problems faced by comparative law, in part because of these other problems.
