Great Advice for Estate PlanningBy Constant ReaderSimplify Your Estate is a terrific book for anyone who takes the challenge to get their estate in order. It doesnt matter what age you get all your bank accounts, papers, wills and so forth together in one place, but the earlier you do it, the better.Lets face it, nobody wants to read about this kind of stuff, or think about a Living Will, or a Trust, or a Health Care Directive, but good planning makes a huge difference. The way you structure your estate and your will can have a big impact on your loved ones. Are you strong enough to hear the truth? If you leave this earthly plain without a will, you are punishing your family. Read the book, take the simplified advice, be specific in your directives, and be at peace, even if you plan to live another 50 years! 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. ... takes a potentially overwhelming subject and simplifies it with easy to read language and advice that is clearly based ... By TC This book takes a potentially overwhelming subject and simplifies it with easy to read language and advice that is clearly based on many years of experience and expertise. It's an easy read book that manages to address all the questions you might have, including those you don't know you should be asking, with straightforward suggestions laced with pearls of wisdom. Highly recommended. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Practical and useful! By sm Easy to read and understand! A must read before you need to use the information.

Common Sense Problem Solving Strategies for Baby Boomers... And Their Parents. Save Time, Stress And Your Family In The Process. I wrote this book, because I have been where you are. I needed to get my own life and estate plans in order. I struggled to help my parents, aunts and other family members do the same. I have seen the devastating effects that poor or improper planning can have on a family. I have experienced the pain, arguments and inter-family wars that it causes. Believe me when I say... You do not want that to happen in your family. I wrote this book because I discovered some very simple strategies that can solve these problems before they arise. Over the last 35 years, I have counseled hundreds of families that either chose to... or were forced to get their affairs in order due to medical or end of life concerns. It really doesn't matter what has brought you to this threshold. The strategies, ideas and solutions that are outlined in this book will help you to navigate the emotions, stress and decisions that need to be made to get your life... and death in order.

About the Author Keith Maderer is an author, a dynamic and humorous speaker, an entrepreneur and a 30+ year veteran of the financial services industry. He completed the Certified Financial Planner (CFP) program in 1990 and has been a Fee-Only Registered Investment Adviser operating in Orchard Park, NY which is a suburb in the Buffalo/Niagara Falls region - since 1989. He works with individuals, pension plans and trusts to help them make simpler and better financial decisions. He has been married to his high school sweetheart (Lori) for over 30 years (I hear she is up for sainthood) and has 5 adult children and 1 grandchild. He has been active in many local non-profit organizations and has served as a coach, League Commissioner and President of the Orchard Park Little League baseball program. He was the co-founder, President and team coach of the Orchard Park Youth Basketball Association and was the founder and managing director of the Maderer Foundation. He actively volunteers in the District 65 Toastmasters International organization where he has served as President of both the Clarence Toastmasters and Larkin Leaders Toastmaster groups. He has achieved their highest designation of excellence in public speaking and leadership the DTM (Distinguished Toastmaster Award) after only 4 years in the program. He was the recipient of the Toastmaster's District 65 Division A Club President of the Year award in 2014 and the District 65 - Area Governor of the Year award in 2015. He was the first runner up in the District 65 International Speech Contest in 2016 and loves sharing stories, anecdotes and messages that help motivate and inspire others to achieve their own success. His hobbies include Reading, Biking, Hiking, Photography, Golf, Disc Golf and playing with his grandchildren.
