Lisa Vetten, Hallie Ludsin : Spiral of Entrapment: Abused Women in Conflict with the Law before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Spiral of Entrapment: Abused Women in Conflict with the Law:

Sponsored by the Centre for the Study of Violence and Reconciliation and endorsed by the Human Rights Foundation, this manual examines various aspects of domestic violence and its particular prevalence in South Africa. The psychology of abuse, including reasons women remain in abusive relationships, is discussed, as well as the efficacy of government-sponsored programs intended to ameliorate abusive situations. Legal advice such as pre-trial and post-conviction options for abused women who killed their batterers, the types of experts used in testimony, and the use of the insanity defense is provided, making this an important resource for centers specializing in domestic violence.

About the Author Lisa Vetten has worked as a counselor with People Opposing Women Abuse (POWA) and has testified as an expert witness on domestic violence in a number of trials involving battered women. Hallie Ludsin has LLM and JD degrees and has written many articles on legality.
