To mark the 25th anniversary of the Convention on the Rights of the Child, this edition of The State of the World's Children calls for brave and fresh thinking to address age-old problems that still affect the world's most disadvantaged children. The report is inspired by the work of innovators around the world who are pushing boundaries and crafting solutions for local problems that reflect urgent global needs towards a future in which all children can enjoy their rights. This Executive Summary provides an overview of the digital report and the context of UNICEF's call for innovation for equity. It also presents key statistics on child survival, development and protection for the world's countries, areas and regions.
