2011 ed.: Leading Lawyers on Educating Clients, Addressing Financial Concerns, and Understanding Recent Legal Trends (Inside the Minds):

Strategies for Family Law in California provides an authoritative, insider's perspective on practicing family law in the state of California. Featuring leading attorneys from around the state, this book guides the reader through recent developments in California family law, including the results of the Elkins Task Force. From financial disclosure and attorneys' fees to questions of legal parentage and shared custody, these top lawyers analyze the current issues in family law today. These experts also reveal their advice on evaluating alternative dispute resolution methods, effectively using experts, and negotiating child support and alimony issues. Additionally, these top attorneys discuss how attorneys can approach emotionally trying cases with civility and professionalism in order to help clients reach satisfactory resolutions. The different niches represented and the breadth of perspectives presented enable readers to get inside some of the great legal minds of today, as these experienced lawyers offer up their thoughts around the keys to success within this ever-evolving field. Inside the Minds provides readers with proven business intelligence from C-Level executives and lawyers (Chairman, CEO, CFO, CMO, Partner) from the world's most respected companies and firms nationwide. Each chapter is comparable to an essay/thought leadership piece and is a future-oriented look at where an industry, profession, or topic is heading and the most important issues for the future. Each author has been selected based upon their experience and C-level standing within the professional community. Chapters Include: 1.
