California:

If you are injured, whether from an accident, a defective product, an unreasonably dangerous condition of property, or malpractice, you enter a war zone. You are pitted against the insurance industry, the courts, and all of the resources at their disposal. You need reliable information BEFORE you retain an attorney or deal with an insurance adjuster. The Premier Guide to Accident and Injury Cases in California explains, in clear terms, what you need to know so that you can decide whether to handle your own case or retain an attorney. If you are looking to retain an attorney, The Premier Guide to Accident and Injury Cases in California will help you decide how to select the attorney that is right for you and your claim. It tells you what insurance company adjusters look for and spells out the pitfalls you must avoid. Making serious mistakes can ruin your case before it even starts. The Premier Guide to Accident and Injury Cases in California will help you avoid mistakes in dealing with lawyers, doctors and insurance adjusters. Avoiding these mistakes will lead you along the path towards winning your case.
