Judy A. Long : The California Legal Directory before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The California Legal Directory:

An outstanding reference for the paralegal, this book offers a thorough compilation of materials and descriptions of procedures for paralegals employed in California. It describes the state and federal court systems and its filing requirements, as well as information about the various court rules and procedures utilized in the trial courts. Legal correspondence, pleadings, and judicial council forms and samples are available for use in the office. Various directories provide information about law firms, locations, maps and other materials available both in book form and on the internet.

About the Author Judy A. Long, J.D., is a retired College Professor/ Paralegal Program Director and retired Attorney and has written several books focusing on paralegal education.
