Michael J. Logue : The Do-It Yourself Living Will before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Do-It Yourself Living Will:

12 of 13 people found the following review helpful. Very Remedial PamphletBy A CustomerUsing a small font this pamphlet could be paraphrased in this amount of space. Definitely not what I had in mind. Did not include enough developed information, lacked substantive information.

Extremely informative yet simplistic -- Cindy Cunningham MS,RN,CNA It Is a quick,easy,and legal way to express your wishes of dying. -- Jennifer Vansant RN,BSN Making a end of life decision is crucial, To living well and dying with dignity. This book presents the topic in a manner which compels individuals to investigate and make known their wishes for the future. This is a truly needed piece of literature. -- Lynda Kopishke RN About the Author Born and raised in South Jersey I moved my family to Delaware in 1986. I recieved a degree in Biology, and then a Chemistry Degree from Widener University. I got involved in Health Care and Medical Insurance in 1988 as a hobby, studying contract and Health Care Laws. In 1998 I started a business call Appeals to aid people in resolving conflicts with thier insurance company. I also review contracts for denied and underpaid benefits, and give small group lectures on Health Care.
