1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. And easy reading book to understand the Estate planning. By Kevin Russak Craig book is an easy read and easy to understand to make sure you make sure of your Florida residency and Estate planning is up to Date. Craig is also a friend of mine that I went to high school with in Indiana. And a few years ago I got a hold of him thinking I need to update my Estate Planning here in Florida. Craig lives over in Fort Myers, FL and I live in Vero Beach, FL he let me know he would be happy to take me on as a client but had recommend that I use some local instead of him. I feel he is very honest on wanting to help people and he has written a few books that are very easy reading and to understand the Laws of Estate Planing. So I recommend reading his book, If you going to live close to where his practice is to use him for your Estate planning and if you can't use him find someone that understands the laws of Florida as well as from where you from so you make sure your estate saves on taxes as well as legal cost if something should happen to you. And not only that I have also given my children copies of his books so they can understand what they need to do if I should pass away. I can't wait for Craigs next book too.

Whether to claim Florida residency and how that affects your estate plan are two significant questions on many peoples minds. This book addresses whether your will, revocable living trust, durable power of attorney, health care surrogate and living will documents from up north remain valid, the important issues you should consider when updating your documents to Florida law, and whether you can achieve tax savings by becoming a Florida resident. Craig R. Hersch is a Florida board certified wills, trusts estates attorney and CPA who has three decades of experience helping families achieve their estate planning goals. He has developed a Unique Process, The Family Estate Legacy Program, geared to provide clients with confidence and clarity through the often confusing legal, tax and financial world.
