Denise DeGarmo, Jad Isaac, Johny Elia Abu Aita : The Geneva Conventions of 1949: The Case of Israel before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Geneva Conventions of 1949: The Case of Israel:

The purpose of this book is to provide a comprehensive analysis of the grave breaches of the Fourth Geneva Convention by the State of Israel since the Oslo Accords. It is only through such analysis that one can understand

Israel's true intentions toward Palestinian territory: occupation as a tool to achieve full annexation of Palestinian territories to create a homeland for Jews alone at any price, even the refusal to be guided by international law.

About the Author Denise DeGarmo is a professor at Southern Illinois University. She has written several books including The Disposal of Radioactive Wastes in the Metropolitan St. Louis Area; International Environmental Treaties and State Behavior: Factors Influencing Cooperation; Palestinian Hip-Hop and Peaceful Resistance; and the US-Israel Strategic Alliance.
