Excellent resource, whether or not you will use an attorney!By A CustomerAs an attorney who regularly represents clients inguardianship proceedings, I strongly recommend thatmy clients read The Guardianship Book so that they understand the sometimes confusing process. In some cases, I hand the book to my clients during our first meeting, as "homework" to read before I will prepare and file a petition. For those who cannot afford an attorney, I recommend this as a resource that will save considerable time and avoid court hearing delays. For clients who can afford to pay my fees, the book still saves my time explaining many issues -- the $25 book can easily save $250 in attorney fees. (Mark J. Welch, Pleasanton, CA)5 of 5 people found the following review helpful. A must if you want to avoid a money sucking lawyerBy vlad@flash.netI recently became a guardian of my young nephew but could not afford and didn't want to deal with a lawyer. This book made it possible. It laid out the steps in a well structured manner. I was very satisfied with my purchase. The forms it included with the book were just great. Buy it.

Thousands of children in California are raised by people other than their parents, for one reason or another. These children need an adult to be appointed their legal guardian. THE GUARDIANSHIP BOOK provides all the forms and instructions necessary to become a child's legal guardian without a lawyer.

About the AuthorLisa S. Goldoftas holds a B.A. from the University of Michigan and an M.A. in English from San Francisco State University. She is the co-author of The Guardianship Book for California and The Conservatorship Book for California. Lisa has never looked back on her decision to go trekking in Nepal instead of going to law school. David Brown practices law in the Monterey, California area, where he has represented both landlords and tenants in hundreds of court cases--most of which he felt could have been avoided if both sides were more fully informed about landlord/tenant law. Brown, a graduate of Stanford University (chemistry) and the University of Santa Clara Law School, also teaches law at the Monterey College of Law and is the author of Fight Your Ticket (CA version), Beat Your Ticket (the national version), The Landlords Law Book, Vol. 1: Rights and Responsibilities; The Landlords Law Book, Vol. 2: Evictions, and co-author of How to Change Your Name in California.
