2 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Deception revealedBy Dr. Abusitta S. HThis extraordinary book, by the distinguished professor of international law, John Quigley, explains in an authoritative legal and historical analysis how the Zionist political practices have used deception and lies at the United Nations at Israel's founding. They still do at every forum. Lies and deception are the core of Israeli practice. They have to. All their actions run against international law. This book is a must reading for professionals and activists and anyone who cares to know the truth.

During the early to mid-twentieth century, the Zionist Organization secured a series of political victories on the international stage, leading to the foundation of a Jewish state and to its ability to expand its territorial control within Palestine. The International Diplomacy of Israel's Founders provides a revisionist account of the founding of Israel by exposing the misrepresentations and false assurances of Zionist diplomats during this formative period of Israeli history. By comparing diplomatic statements at the United Nations and elsewhere against the historical record, it sheds new light on the legacies of such leaders as Chaim Weizmann, David Ben Gurion, Abba Eban, and Shabtai Rosenne. Including coverage of little-discussed moments in early Israeli history, this book offers an important new perspective for anyone interested in the history of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict.

"In this book, John Quigley continues to champion the Palestinian cause. He has labored mightily for right in a field where the very same diplomacy that he describes has made it impossible for even those with the best intentions to advance basic legal and human rights for the Palestinian people." M. Cherif Bassiouni, Emeritus Professor of Law, DePaul University"Quigley shows that throughout the history of Israel, its leaders have given the international community false assurances and falsified facts, and that many of Israel's diplomatic achievements are the result of this deception." John Dugard, Former UN Special Rapporteur on Human Rights in the Occupied Palestinian TerritoryAbout the AuthorJohn Quigley is the President's Club Professor in Law at the Ohio State University Moritz College of Law and a leading expert on the Arab-Israeli conflict. His recent publications include The Six-Day War and Israeli Self-Defense (2013) and The Statehood of Palestine: International Law in the Middle East Conflict (2010).
