Not illustrated. 1875 Excerpt: ... of the Superintendent Registrar, but the party giving the same shall state therein that such Marriage is intended to be celebrated by licence. In case of Marriage by Licence, Notice to be given to the Superintendent Registrar of One District, which shall be sufficient. 6. In any case of Marriage intended to be solemnized by licence, under the provisions of either of the said two firstlyrecited Acts or of this Act, between parties both of whom do not dwell in the same Superintendent Registrar's district, it shall not be required that notice of such intended Marriage shall be given to more than one Superintendent Registrar, but a notice to the Superintendent Registrar of the district in which one of the parties so intending Marriage resides shall be sufficient; and it shall not be required that the said notice shall state how long each of the said parties has resided in his or her dwelling place, but only how long the party residing in the district in which the notice is given has so resided. Notice of Marriage without Licence may be given in Ireland, if One of the Parties reside there. 7. In every case in which one of the parties intending Marriage without licence under the provisions of any of the said recited Acts or of this Act shall dwell in Ireland, the party so dwelling in Ireland shall give notice in the form there (7) used in that behalf, or to the like effect, to the (7) See next page. Registrar of the district in Ireland within which such party shall have dwelt for not less than seven days then next preceding, and shall state therein the name and surname and the profession and condition and age of each of the parties intending Marriage, and also the dwelling place of each of them, and the time, not being less than seven days, during The following ...
