Law School to Law Firm (Inside the Minds)*:

The Law School Librarian's Role as an Educator is an authoritative, insider's perspective on key strategies for teaching successful legal research skills and fostering the transition from law school to law firm. Featuring library directors and managers representing some of the nation's top law schools, these experts guide the reader through maximizing legal research, evaluating library resources, managing staff, and meeting law school expectations. These top librarians give tips on harnessing student/faculty relationships, navigating new legal materials, managing the library budget, and monitoring student progress. Finally, these leaders offer advice for addressing challenges, responding to change, and implementing new technologies. The different niches represented and the breadth of perspectives presented enable readers to get inside the minds of some of the leading information managers of today, as these experienced law school librarians offer up their thoughts around the keys to navigating this ever-evolving profession. Inside the Minds provides readers with proven business intelligence from C-Level executives (Chairman, CEO, CFO, CMO, Partner) from the world's most respected companies nationwide, rather than third-party accounts from unknown authors and analysts. Each chapter is comparable to an essay/thought leadership piece and is a future-oriented look at where an industry, profession or topic is headed and the most important issues for the future. Through an exhaustive selection process, each author was hand-picked by the Inside the Minds editorial board to author a chapter for this book. Chapters Include: 1. Michelle Rigual, Associate Director and Assistant Professor of Law Librarianship, University of New Mexico School of Law Library "Teaching a New Dog the Same Old Trick" 2. James E. Duggan, Associate Law Library Director and Professor, Southern Illinois University School of Law Library "Meeting the Needs of Tomorrow's Library User Today" 3. Joyce A. McCray Pearson, Director and Associate Professor of Law, The University of Kansas School of Law, Wheat Law Library "The Director and Law School Librarian's Role as Educator" 4. Janis L.
