

[Read now] The Lawyer's Guide to Working Smarter with Knowledge Tools

The Lawyer's Guide to Working Smarter with Knowledge Tools

Marc Lauritsen

DOC | *audiobook | ebooks | Download PDF | ePub

#2342386 in Books American Packing Gasket 2011-03-16Ingredients: Example IngredientsOriginal language:EnglishPDF # 1 10.12 x .47 x 7.10l, .97 #File Name: 1604428260244 pages | File size: 64.Mb

Marc Lauritsen : The Lawyer's Guide to Working Smarter with Knowledge Tools before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Lawyer's Guide to Working Smarter with Knowledge Tools:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. ... asked me what single book on "tech" he should recommend to his staffBy Gabriel TeninbaumA law library director recently asked me what single book on "tech" he should recommend to his staff, and without hesitation, I recommended this book. Lauritsen does a fantastic job of giving readers a framework to think about knowledge tools and how, and when, they are useful in law practice. I assign it to my students, and regularly recommend it to practitioners looking to have better, more efficient, law practices.2 of 4 people found the following review helpful. Knowledge Tools ResourceBy Mark RobertsonThe book is a strong overview of the use of knowledge tools by lawyers in their everyday practices. While the book introduces the basics of different tools, it is not a "how to" instruction manual - rather, it tasks the reader with considering which tools will help them work smarter, be more productive and address the needs of their clients using systems and technology.Each chapter offers thought provoking topics on knowledge tools and applications, followed by references to additional resources and actions that the reader can take to further understand and use the applications. For those willing to take the time to read this book, they will be well ahead of the rest in understanding and being able to meet the title's challenge - working smarter with knowledge tools.1 of 3 people found the following review helpful. A Road Map to Digital Tools For LawyersBy Richard GranatThis book is an excellent roadmap for lawyers interested in digital tools that help them work more productively. In a single volume you can get an overview of what's available and what's coming. Clients want their lawyers to use whatever information technology tools are available and to pass those savings on to them. Arguably, lawyers who don't understand how to integrate knowledge management into their law practice are working not smarter, but very inefficiently. Should be required reading for lawyers and especially law students.

This ground-breaking guide introduces lawyers and other professionals to a powerful class of software that supports core aspects of legal work. The author discusses how technologies like practice systems, work product retrieval, document assembly, and interactive checklists help people work smarter. If you are looking to work more effectively, this book provides a clear roadmap, with many concrete examples and thought-provoking ideas. "This book is a first rate primer on knowledge systems for lawyers. On each page, it exhibits the extensive practical experience and deep conceptual insight of its author. Crucially, it is written with a jauntiness and a lightness of touch that render it entirely accessible to all lawyers."--Professor Richard Susskind, author, The End of Lawyers?"This is mandatory reading for anyone considering game-changing technology applications with high impact on day-to-day legal practice. From document assembly to decision-assistance, Marc Lauritsen opens the doors to meaningful technological change."--Dennis Kennedy, author, The Lawyer's Guide to Collaboration Tools and Technologies

About the AuthorMarc Lauritsen is a Massachusetts lawyer and educator with twenty-five years of experience in knowledge system development. After earning degrees from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Harvard Law School, he worked as a poverty lawyer and became director of clinical programs and a senior research associate at Harvard. Marc established Capstone Practice Systems in 1998 and later served as vice president for practice technology at AmeriCounsel.com, an Internet legal services company. He more recently founded Legal Systematics, Inc. He is a technology correspondent for Artificial Intelligence and Law, cochair of the American Bar Association's eLawyering Task Force, and a Fellow of the College of Law Practice Management. Lauritsen resides in Massachusetts.