The quotes in this book are from leaders that I find much of my own inspiration from and also from some that I wasn't sure of but now I know their strong leadership prowess. This book was written for those who have great potential to become a great leader but are unsure on what that looks like or how to go by doing that. If you want to make an impact on the world and become a change agent, then this is a must read.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. A Stairway to Higher GroundBy CustomerThis small book packs a big punch for those who want to incorporate daily reflection into their leadership practice. The contexted thoughts and quotes of renowned change-makers serve as a springboard to reflecting on one's daily challenges as a leader. My husband and I have taken some of these quotes after individually reflecting on them into wonderful dialogues which help us each infuse our own day of service into fuller focus. Wonderful for those in search of higher ground to stand on as leader.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. The book is a viable seed for social justice in ...By MussaThe book is a viable seed for social justice in form of ideas to awaken 'the sleeping leaders within.' Dr. Tyner's main accomplishment in this masterpiece has been to synthesize the gem thoughts of key thinkers in a reader-friendly fashion.' Dr. Mussa S. Muneja

This book is an inspirational quote book that focuses on leadership. A leader must be willing to understand where they have been in order to know where they are headed. Ongoing reflection through journaling serves as an indispensable navigational tool. It aids in identifying a person's core values and goal setting. This book provides a contextual analysis around the quotes and offers a supportive framework.

About the AuthorDr. Artika Renee Tyner is a passionate educator, author, sought-after speaker, and advocate for justice. At the University of St. Thomas College of Education, Leadership Counseling, Dr. Tyner serves as a public policy/leadership professor. She trains graduate students to serve as social engineers who create new inroads to justice and freedom. Dr. Tyner received her B.A. from Hamline University (major: English; certificate: conflict studies). Because of her passion for advocating for social justice and educational policy reform, she decided to pursue graduate studies at the University of St. Thomas. She began her journey with law school, because she recognized that the law is a language of power and sought to become versed in the law. Subsequently, Dr. Tyner earned her Master of Public Policy in order to gain tools for effecting social change through policy reform efforts. Later, inspired by the legacy of W.E.B. Dubois, she obtained a doctorate in leadership.
