Andrew H Agatston : The Legal Eagles Guide for Children's Advocacy Centers, Part II: Soaring Confidently in the Courtroom before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Legal Eagles Guide for Children's Advocacy Centers, Part II: Soaring Confidently in the Courtroom:

This second edition collection of Legal Letters written by Attorney Andrew Agatston to Children's Advocacy Centers, child advocates and detectives builds upon the 2009 book, "The Legal Eagles of Children's Advocacy Centers: A Lawyer's Guide to Soaring in the Courtroom." It is critical for Children's Advocacy Center professionals, and others who work on behalf of children who have alleged sexual abuse, to have a thorough understanding of the legal system and the legal rules and requirements that directly affect their professional responsibilities. This book is a second collection of Legal Letters that Mr. Agatston has written to his "Legal Eagles" as part of his weekly List Serv that now has subscribers in 35 states.

About the Author Andrew Agatston is an attorney in private practice in Marietta, Georgia. His personal injury practice includes the representation of crime victims, such as sexual abuse survivors, in civil claims in order to obtain civil justice for these horrific acts. Also, since 1998, Andrew has been affiliated with Children's Advocacy Centers and now provides legal services for five CACs in Georgia. Additionally, he often provides training for CACs and similar organizations at the local, state and national levels. He and his wife Patti, a psychologist and co-author of Cyber Bullying: Bullying in the Digital Age, have been married for 23 years, and they have two boys.
