Herman Lelieveldt, Sebastiaan Princen : The Politics of the European Union (Cambridge Textbooks in Comparative Politics) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Politics of the European Union (Cambridge Textbooks in Comparative Politics):

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars By Allyson Whitt What I needed for class this semester!

A new introduction to the European Union which uses the lens of comparative politics. This approach helps students understand the EU through comparisons with domestic politics and links with broader debates in political science. The text is supported by numerous examples, and chapters include briefings, fact files and controversy boxes which highlight important information and controversial issues in EU politics to widen and deepen student understanding. The authors have developed online 'Navigating the EU' exercises that introduce students to useful sources of information on the internet and help them to analyse policy making in the EU. This textbook is a comprehensive introduction to EU politics and covers history, theory, key institutions and participants, as well as policies and policy making.

"Finally an EU textbook that seamlessly weaves together comparative politics and EU politics. Herman Lelieveldt and Sebastiaan Princen have written a richly textured, highly informative, yet accessible book for graduates and undergraduates." - Liesbet Hooghe, Zachary Taylor Smith Professor of Political Science, University of North Carolina and Chair in Multilevel Governance at the VU University of Amsterdam
