What I expected bookBy JacquelineBook was in good condition and arrived quickly; also had a covering to prevent damage; much appreciated; helped me get an A on the final..Thanks0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy Ileana E.Great book0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. A decent book with some errorsBy gbwrenI read this book for an online college class; as I read it, I found some parts to be very contrasting to other legal information I previously held; a paralegal with 30 years of experience told me there are parts of the book that where not entirely accurate. Nonetheless, it did contain some good information that all paralegals need to know. If you get this book I'd recommend having a legal professional or educator who can clarify some portions.

The Professional Paralegal presents a comprehensive and pragmatic overview of today's legal system and the diverse role of the contemporary paralegal. The innovative use of profiles and experiences of professional paralegals woven throughout the text provide personal and motivating insight while introducing practical tools, substantive issues and the all-important consideration of ethics. This textbook presents information easily accessed by students and offers many opportunities for discussion, research and review. The Paralegal Supersite Site

About the Author Allan M. Tow is an Associate Professor of Paralegal Studies at Suffolk University, Boston, Massachusetts, where he has taught since 1993. Previously he taught as a clinical instructor and directing attorney at Harvard Law School and as an instructor at Suffolk Law School. Allan was a Managing Attorney with Legal Services of the Virgin Islands and Greater Boston Legal Services. He was also a judicial clerk in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. While a member of Suffolk's paralegal program, Allan successfully litigated several pro bono cases before the United States Supreme Court and the First Circuit Court of Appeals. He received a Bachelor of Arts cum laude from Brandeis University in Anthropology and Linguistics and a Juris Doctor cum laude from Boston College Law School.
