From Beck/Hart : The Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court: A Commentary (Third Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court: A Commentary (Third Edition):

In the third edition of this much acclaimed commentary, Otto Triffterer, Kai Ambos, and a number of eminent legal practitioners and scholars in the field of international criminal law give a detailed article-by-article analysis of the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court, as well as the Elements of Crime and the Rules of Procedure and Evidence adopted by the Assembly of States Parties in 2002, and the Regulations of the Court. [The second edition was winner of the 2009 'American Society of International Law Certificate of Merit for High Technical Craftsmanship and Utility to Practicing Lawyers and Scholars.']*  Praise for the second edition: "Clearly written by experts in the field, skillfully edited, the commentary will prove indispensable to any serious scholar or practitioner of international criminal law." -- German Yearbook of International Law * "...indispensable for both academic international lawyers and practitioners, whether at public service or in private practice." -- European Journal of International Law [Subject: Public International Law, Criminal Law, Comparative Law]

About the Author Otto Triffterer is Professor Emeritus at the University of Salzburg, Austria. Kai Ambos is Professor of Law at the University of Gottingen and Judge at the State Court (Landgericht) Gottingen, Germany. More than 50 eminent authors from all-over the world have contributed to this commentary.
