This book is for lawyers who are ready to become more productive and reduce stress. Inside, I present a series of strategies specifically tailored for lawyers to increase their time spent on quality work. At the same time, you will eliminate sources of unnecessary anxiety and tension. My strategies can change the way you focus your time and attention to do your best work -- by applying the GTD core principles with specific modifications for attorneys. By following the approach in this book, you can improve your practice today!
