Trust and Probate Litigation provides an authoritative, insider's perspective on key strategies for litigating trust and probate matters. Featuring partners from some of the nation's leading law firms, these experts guide the reader through the various components of developing a successful litigation strategy, including understanding the client's goals and motivations, building a team in preparation for litigation, and managing complex cases with multiple parties and conflicting interests. These top lawyers discuss common arguments in trust and probate contests and how to develop innovative defenses to meet client expectations. From the complexities of the modern family to changes in demographics, these authors offer theories on the social factors motivating clients to litigate. Additionally, these leaders comment on the new technologies available for managing documents and expediting the discovery process. The different niches represented and the breadth of perspectives presented enable readers to get inside some of the great legal minds of today, as these experienced lawyers offer up their thoughts around the keys to success within this ever-evolving area of law. Inside the Minds provides readers with proven business intelligence from C-Level executives and lawyers (Chairman, CEO, CFO, CMO, Partner) from the world's most respected companies and firms nationwide. Each chapter is comparable to an essay/thought leadership piece and is a future-oriented look at where an industry, profession, or topic is heading and the most important issues for the future. Each author has been selected based upon their experience and C-level standing within the professional community. Chapters Include: 1.
