Planning Issues (Twenty Answered Questions) (Volume 1):

Are you getting older? Do you wonder how to plan in case you need help with decisions? This book describes some of the tools used in Planning for Incapacity and focuses on various powers of attorney. It is one of the series entitled "Twenty Answered Questions" by the author. The second edition expands the examples and adds content.

About the AuthorMr. Douglas E. Koenig is a graduate of Dartmouth College and the Michigan State University College of Law. After a successful career in engineering and information technology, he retired from the Ford Motor Company. Mr. Koenig established an Elder Law practice in Durham, North Carolina. He assists people in planning for aging and transition and helps families avoid the devastatingly high costs of long term care. Mr. Koenig was selected as a Top Attorney in North America for the 2015-16 edition of Who's Who.
