Danny Allen : We Need It By Next Thursday: The Joys of Writing Psychiatric Reports before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised We Need It By Next Thursday: The Joys of Writing Psychiatric Reports:

Many books have been written about forensic psychiatry, expert witness work and the court system. All these assume a prior interest and many are heavy tomes. This book provides a pain-free introduction to all types of psychiatric report-writing, enabling you to decide for yourself if this is something you would like to do - and gives you a pretty good idea how to set about it. Danny Allen is the author of It's a Shrinking Business! and the editor of Do You Know a Good Expert? Written in a light-hearted style, this book entertains as it informs. Highly recommended for all psychiatrists, and even some lawyers! Second edition.

About the Author Danny Allen is a consultant psychiatrist who has been writing expert reports for 20 years. He does not believe in taking life too seriously.
