Steve May, David Pizarra : What about Wally? Co-Parenting a Pet with Your Ex. (Petloverzguides) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised What about Wally? Co-Parenting a Pet with Your Ex. (Petloverzguides):

This handbook on how to share a dog is written by Pet Expert Steven May and Family Law attorney David T. Pisarra. Using their years of experience with couples who break up, they demonstrate how to share the love a dog, and develop a Parenting Plan that allows a couple to overcome the friction points. Drawing on their respective breakups, each author contributes their perspective, and using themselves as real life examples, they explain how couples who used to be in love, can continue to be Pet Parents to their dog.
