This is the only book on the subject written by a certified public accountant that has been an executor of many estates and is familiar with the financial and tax problems encountered by a surviving spouse. The objective of this book is to take the mystery out of what you believe to be complicated subjects and to make them simple for you to understand.

About the Author Harry Mautner is a Certified Public Accountant practicing in New York and Florida, specializing in estate planning and taxes. He has lectured extensively on these subjects on television, in universities and has conducted seminars on cruise ships. He was a major stockholder and officer of publicly held corporations. He has been executor or personal representative of several estates in New York and Florida. He lives with his wife in Hollywood, Florida. His immediate family includes their two sons, daughter in law, and two grandchildren.
