A medical and legal nightmare!

About the Author Delores Bonner Carbone is the widow of William J. Carbone. She has two Paralegal Certificates from the California College of Paralegal Studies, and a Certificate of Training in Mediation from The Center for Dispute Resolution. She was also the founder and President of Consumer Advocates for Legal Justice (Caljustice) and was a public member of the California State Bar's Complainant's Grievance Panel for 9 years. As a consumer advocate for legal justice, she believes that it is wrong for the legal profession to regulate itself. However, her main concern has been the protection of the public, and if the disciplinary system is improved so that it works effectively, that's what really matters.
